

Agricultural Market Report

Milk

There has been a general nationwide increase in milk prices recently mainly in the central region markets where prices have since risen from an average wholesale price of shs.700 to shs.1000 and retail price, from shs.800 to shs.1200. Markets in the western region recorded slight changes with wholesale prices ranging between shs.400 and shs.800 rising to a range of shs.500 and shs.1000. Prices in the Eastern and northern regions have been relatively stable.

This has been attributed to the prolonged drought that forced pastoralists to move to distant areas in search of pasture and water leading to a reduction in milk production levels. A case in point is the southern region where production is reported to have gone down by half.

Besides the drought, the Northern region districts of Gulu and Karamoja, Moroto and Nakapiripirit were earlier reportedly hit by an infectious livestock disease of foot and Mouth and CPBB causing deaths of hundreds of animals and, inevitably, a major fall in the supply of milk and beef in the region.

Fortunately, rains are beginning to pick up and milk supply can therefore, be expected to increase as pastures improve.

Market Highlights

Owino

A drop in the Soya bean price level was reported in Owino Market due to heavy supply from the areas of Pallisa, Lira and Aryam where harvesting is reported to have been taking place. A kilogram currently ranges between shs.950 and shs.1300.

Mbale

There is a growing fear of an impending shortage for millet and bean in this market as storage houses continue to dry up despite the low supply for these commodities. Local chicken price has also increased by shs.1000 (both wholesale and retail). Conversely, groundnut supply from Teso and Pallisa has increased in this market although the price is still high.

Nakasero

Sweet potato prices have continued to go up with a sharp increase by shs.300 and shs.350 for wholesale and retail price respectively. There was low supply of this commodity over the weekend.
