

Market Highlights

Kalerwe

Kalerwe market recorded an improvement in the supply of cassava tubes which has thus, led to a drop in fresh cassava price as compared to the last week's. The current rains have improved the otherwise poor harvest that was experienced earlier.

Arua

Cassava flour price went up by shs.50 in both wholesale and retail. This was due to delayed deliveries that caused the temporary shortage on the market. Despite the heavy supply this week, ground nuts registered an increase by shs.500 in retail price. Traders, however, attributed this to the high costs incurred while bringing in the produce from Congo, Anguowibo and Arivu areas.

Lira

There was a general reduction in prices for all cassava varieties with cassava flour dropping by shs.400, while fresh, fermented and sundried reduced by shs.200 in both wholesale and retail due to the high supply recorded. Cowpeas price has also reduced due to declining demand. A kilo is currently costing shs.800 and shs.1000 both wholesale and retail respectively. Beans prices are dropping as well mainly due to the large supply. However, prices may not fall given the current high demand for the beans.

Masaka

Matooke price has slightly risen by shs.1000 in both wholesale and retail. The report from the market indicated a low supply of the item on the market and so was the case with Irish potatoes whose price rose by shs.200 (both wholesale and retail).

Kabale

Matooke registered an increase in price by shs.500 and shs.1000 both wholesale and retail respectively. This was attributed to low supply from Ntungamo which is the main source of supply.

Nakawa

Matooke prices soared in Nakawa market due to their unavailability. The current rains have made a number of roads impassable for trucks causing heavy delays in deliveries.

Owino

The reduction in millet grain prices is due to increased supply from the districts of Aryam, Lira and Gulu. The retail price reduced from shs.1300 to shs.1200 while the wholesale price reduced from shs.1150 to shs.1050.
