

Commodity Highlights

The recent riot in Kampala city put many businesses to a standstill including operations in a number of markets within the city-centre. However, the mostly affected markets were Nakasero and Kalerwe which recorded a dramatic increase in some commodity prices. The state of the city was very threatening making it difficult for suppliers to deliver food stuffs to these markets. Accordingly, there were barely any beans, Sweet potatoes and fresh cassava in Kalewe market. Hence, by Saturday morning bean prices had risen by shs.400, sweet potatoes by shs.175 and fresh cassava by shs.200. Matooke price in Nakasero market rose by shs3000 on both wholesale and retail. The situation is, however, expected to normalize with time.

Conditions in other markets out side Kampala were generally stable with a few that recorded slight commodity price changes. In Arua market, for instance, fresh and sundried cassava prices dropped due to increased supplies. For Sundried cassava, more came in from Mutukula where prices are reported to be slightly lower. Sweet potatoes in Arua market also recorded an increase in supply though price was not affected. Besides, Fresh cassava supply in Kasese market was equally high and was majorly coming in from Tororo. This led also led to fall in the price by shs.100. In Nakawa market the price fell by shs.40.

In addition to cassava fresh were Irish potatoes which recorded a reduction in price in Kasese market. It was supplied in abundance from farmers in the areas of Kilembe and Rwimi. A kilo of Irish was selling at shs.700, a price that was believed to be reasonably fair compared to past weeks.

However, bean prices have been gradually increasing for the last one week. Traders in Kasese market attributed this to difficulty in transport and the high price set by farmers.

Soya bean prices shot up in Soroti market as demand increased from a number of schools that opened for the third term about 2weeks ago. Price rose by shs.100. Unlike Soroti, soya bean price (wholesale) in Owino was falling low due to increase in supply from the Lira, Ayam, Kitgum and Pader.
